Problem

ИИ Системы изолированы и статичны. Они не моделируют коллективный интеллект, социодинамику и эволюцию мнений, что особенно критично в сложных и волатильных средах, например криптовалютных рынках

This image shows a user interface for completing a profile. It features a central modal window titled "Complete Your Profile". Inside the modal, there is a wallet address field containing "0x03C2...9F25" with a green circular icon next to it. Below this are fields for "Full Name" and "Username". The "Username" field contains "@username" and includes a note below it stating "Choose a unique username (letters, numbers, and underscores only)". At the bottom of the modal is a green button labeled "Complete Registration". In the background, there is a blurred view of a "Welcome!" screen and a large, stylized infinity symbol logo.
